A large, barn-like corner restaurant on the western extremities of Harlem. Several craft beers on tap make this an oasis in the far-uptown beer desert. There is seating at the bar for non-diners. Tasting flights are available. Beware of frosted glasses - if you want to actually taste your beer, request a room temperature glass on ordering. Part of a small chain founded in Syracuse. Open 11.30am-11pm Tuesdays to Saturdays, 11.30am-midnight Fridays and Saturdays, noon-10pm Sundays. Closed Mondays.

Subway: Either 125th Street or 137th Street – City College 1
